Scouts complete Eagle requirements

At a special court of honor held at Camp KeDeKa near Sugar Grove on Oct. 27, Jason Soltis and Chris Morton, members of Oswego Boy

Scout Troop 31, completed their Eagle requirements and were awarded the rank of Eagle, Boy Scouting's highest rank.

In addition, a large number of scouts were presented with merit badges they earned during the past summer and at scout camp.

Last Saturday, Nov. 16,

Drew Mundsinger organized his Eagle service project at Saw-Wee-Kee Park south of Oswego. As part of the project, Troop 31 scouts chipped trails and installed parking barriers. A total of 34 scouts and adult leaders were involved in the project.

Troop 31 holds their meetings at 7 p.m. each Monday at the Oswego Presbyterian Church. All area boys are invited to attend. For more information, call Scoutmaster Del LaGow at 708-554-8928.
